

MESSENGER PLATINUM JUBILEE SOUVENIR

The parties went with a swing

Story-telling at Uggeshall

All ready to go at the church

Wangford & Henham Platinum Jubilee Exhibition

The Earl and Countess of Stradbroke
in their
Coronation robes

Rosemary
Sutton Coronation
Tea Party
1953

Wangford Post Office

Tommy Durrant,
Bill Stockdale
and Gee Ellis
1971

Coronets worn at the Coronation
by the Earl
and Countess of Stradbroke.

Flowers by Rosemary Sutton
and
Sally Howeld

Uggeshall's baby giant redwood!

Happy choristers at the Celebration Service

Blacksmith Close chose better weather for their street party!

Guest of honour Eric Stockdale, who cut the ribbon to open the Community Garden.

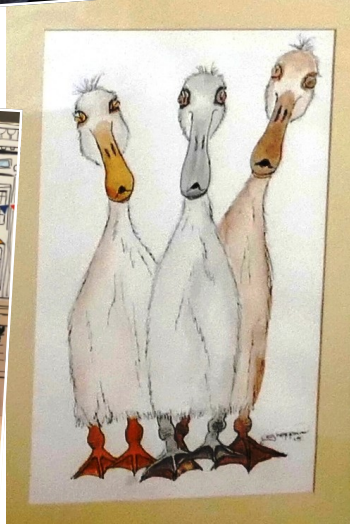

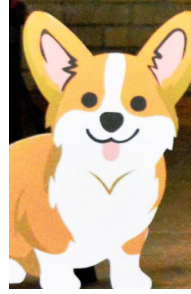

Geoff Pepper and Helen Rolfe, the driving forces behind the Community Garden project.

Just one more lick of paint

ART AND CRAFTS

AFTERNOON TEA

GAMES

We are grateful to Wangford with Henham Parish Council who have generously sponsored the printing of this supplement